The Story of "The Snug"

Opening their doors in 2003, owners Ed Brown and Ellen Nally Brown had a passion to offer a quaint, yet exciting, Irish style pub with excellent local and Irish entertainment.

Of the many accolades received over the years they are proudest of their 'Taste of the Town' awards from the annual 'Taste of Hingham' foodie celebration. Voted by the people as the best in the land, their marinated sirloin tips (secret recipe) are a must try when visiting The Snug.

Known as the 'Home of the Perfect Pint', the Snug features a 'state of the art' European draft beer system second to none. Commitment to the 'Perfect Pint' shows in the handcrafted traditional Guinness "Double Pour". Guinness has awarded The Snug their Gold Standard Award in recognition of the achievement of the highest possible standards in manufacturing and production as set by Guinness UDV. They also carry a wide variety of industry leading imports and local craft beers always poured into their traditional style glassware.
